RE: USA v. Walters Case No. 1:16-cr-00338 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

The Court has set oral argument on the matter of restitution in the above-styled case for June 1. [Dkt. 300]. Recently, however, Dean Foods proposed to resolve the matter within its Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings pending in the Southern District of Texas. For the Court's information, last month the bankruptcy court approved the sale of substantially all of Dean Foods' assets. Thus, Walters and Dean Foods believe that if they can come to an agreement within the bankruptcy confines, it will streamline the remaining restitution issues and preserve resources of the bankruptcy estate. Accordingly, in the interest of preserving the resources of the bankruptcy estate and the Court, we request that the Court reschedule the restitution hearing for 60 days. We have consulted with the Government which endorses this approach and joins the request.

Very truly yours,

Gregory A. Brassfield
